

About Us

Workskills is a Tasmanian organisation that has been providing community services, employment, and skills training for over 41 years. We listen to what parents and families need, find out what works best, and always look for ways to improve. We are dedicated to creating a safe and caring, family friendly place.

Our Key Service Commitments

What to Expect from Us

Our service has four steps, designed to go at your pace, with the goal of helping you start work, education, or both when you're ready:

Step1-Understand

We look at what you're good at and what you need.

Step2-First Things First

We help you stay safe, and deal with a crisis.

Step3-Step by Step

We help you make a plan for your life or career and support you to reach your goals.

Step4-Let's Go

We give support to help you take a big step into work, education, or life changes.

Our Principles

Celebrating Parents

We celebrate the important role of parents with young children and make sure you feel valued for the love and care you provide, no matter your culture or family situation.

Parents as Leaders

We support parents in becoming strong leaders in their families, communities, and beyond. Parent input is important in shaping our program.
